1. Start by logging in to your account at www.iscd.org. You will not be able to view the Journal of Clinical Densitometry (JCD) if you do not have an active Full or Professional Membership.

2. Hover your mouse over the “Join” tab to reveal the drop-down menu, and then select “Journal of Clinical Densitometry” from the Member Benefits column.

3. Click the blue button that says “Full and Professional Member Access”
4. Hover over the “Articles & Issues” tab to reveal the drop-down menu, and choose “Sign in to set up alerts.”

5. Create an account with the same email address you use for your ISCD account (or sign in, if you have already done this step previously).
6. Click the blue “Continue” button

7. Hover over “Articles & Issues” and select “Edit my alert.”

9. You can now change your settings to choose how JCD updates are displayed in your Email.
Once you have signed up successfully, emails you receive will look like this:
